APPLICATION AGREEMENT

The following Application Agreement will be signed by you and all co-applicants prior to signing a Lease Contract. While some of the information below may not yet apply to your situation, there are some provisions that may become applicable prior to signing a Lease Contract. In order to continue with this application, you'll need to review the Application Agreement carefully and acknowledge that you accept its terms.

- Lease Contract Information. The Lease Contract contemplated by the parties will be the current Lease Contract. Special information and conditions must be explicitly noted on the Lease Contract.
- Approval When Lease Contract Is Signed in Advance. If you and all co-applicants have already signed the Lease Contract when we approve the Application, our representative will notify you (or one of you if there are co-applicants) of our approval, sign the Lease Contract, and then credit the application deposit of all applicants toward the required security deposit.
- Approval When Lease Contract Isn't Yet Signed. If you and all co-applicants have not signed the Lease Contract when we approve the Application, our representative will notify you (or one of you if there are co-applicants) of the approval, sign the Lease Contract when you and all co-applicants have signed, and then credit the application deposit of all applicants toward the required security deposit.
- If you Fail to Sign Lease Contract After Approval. Unless we authorize otherwise in writing, you and all co-applicants must sign the Lease Contract within 3 days after we give you our approval in person or by telephone or within 5 days after we mail you our approval. You will be obligated to pay to us a charge of 1/30th of the monthly rental value of the premises from the time the unit was withheld from the market if you fail to sign the Lease Contract after its approval. The amount will begin to be charged on the date this agreement is signed, and will end on  the date we put the unit back on the market  the date a replacement tenant begins paying rent for the premises reserved for you. We will keep this amount from the application deposit to satisfy this amount.
- If You Withdraw Before Approval. If you or any co-applicant withdraws an Application or notifies us that you've changed your mind about renting the dwelling, we'll be entitled to retain all or a portion of the application deposits as liquidated damages, and the parties will then have no further obligation to each other.

APPLICATION AGREEMENT (CONTINUED)

- 6. Approval/Non-Approval. We will notify you whether you've been approved within 10 days after the date we receive a completed Application. Your Application will be considered "disapproved" if we fail to notify you of your approval within 10 days after we have received a completed Application. Notification may be in person or by mail or telephone unless you have requested that notification be by mail. You must not assume approval until you receive actual notice of approval. The 10-day time period may be changed only by separate written agreement.
- 7. Refund after Non-Approval. If you or any co-applicant is disapproved or deemed disapproved under Paragraph 6, we'll refund all application deposits within 21 days of such disapproval. Refund checks may be made payable to all co-applicants and mailed to one applicant.
- 8. Extension of Deadlines. If the deadline for signing, approving, or refunding under paragraphs 4, 6, or 7 falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or a state or federal holiday, the deadline will be extended to the end of the next business day.
- 9. Keys or Access Devices. We'll furnish keys and/or access devices only after: (1) all parties have signed the Lease Contract and other rental documents; and (2) all applicable rents and security deposits have been paid in full.
- 10. Application Submission. Submission of a rental application does not guarantee approval or acceptance. It does not bind us to accept the applicant or to sign a Lease Contract.

DISCLOSURES

- 1. Application Screening Fee (Non-Refundable). You agree to pay to our representative the non-refundable application screening fee in the amount indicated in paragraph 3. Payment of the application screening fee does not guarantee that your application will be accepted. The application screening fee partially defrays the cost of administrative paperwork. It is non-refundable.
- 2. Application Deposit (may or may not be refundable). In addition to any application screening fee(s), you agree to pay to our representative an application deposit in the amount indicated below. The application deposit is not a security deposit. The application deposit will be credited toward the required security deposit when the Lease Contract has been signed by all parties; OR, it will be refunded under paragraph 7 of the Application Agreement if your application is not approved; OR, all or a portion of it will be retained by us as liquidated damages if you fail to sign or attempt to withdraw under paragraphs 4 or 5 of the Application Agreement. The amount of the application deposit is $ _____.
- 3. Application Screening Fees. The itemized amount of your nonrefundable application screening fee is as follows:
  1. Cost of credit report, eviction search, and/or other screening reports $ _____
  2. Cost to process information (including staff time/labor) $ _____
  3. Total Application Screening Fee Charged (Item 1 + Item 2) $ _____

The total amount of payment used by us to screen your credit history and other background information cannot be more than $53.64, which may be adjusted annually in accordance with the CPI as of January 1, 1998. You will receive a copy of your completed application upon submission. This copy will serve as a receipt for your non-refundable application screening fee.

- 4. Completed Application. Your Rental Application for Residents and Occupants will not be considered "completed" and will not be processed until we receive the following documentation and fees:
  1. Your completed Rental Application;
  2. Completed Rental Applications for each co-applicant and guarantor (if applicable);
  3. Application screening fees for all applicants;
  4. Application deposit for the Unit.
- 5. Notice to or from Co-Applicants. Any notice we give you or your co-applicant is considered notice to all co-applicants; and any notice from you or your co-applicant is considered notice from all co-applicants.

Their information and privacy policy can be found at:

Website Address: _____

Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies through the Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies Act (ICRAA) have assumed a vital role in collecting, assembling, evaluating, compiling, reporting, transmitting, transferring, or communicating information on consumers for employment, and insurance purposes, and for the purposes relating to the hiring of dwelling units, subpoenas, court orders, licensure and other lawful purposes. The California legislature finds there is a need that Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies exercise their grave responsibilities with fairness, impartiality, and a respect for consumers rights to privacy. The crime of identity theft in this new computer era has exploded and has become the fastest growing white-collar crime in America. The unique nature of this crime means that it can often go undetected for years without the victim being aware that his or her identity has been misused. Because notice of identity theft is critical before the victim can take steps to stop and prosecute this crime, consumers are best protected if they are given copies of any investigative consumer reports made on them. The ICRAA requires that Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies adopt reasonable procedures for meeting the needs of commerce for information related to the renting of dwellings in a matter which is fair and equitable to the consumer, with regard to the confidentiality, accuracy, relevancy, and proper utilization of the information in accordance with the requirements of the ICRAA.

The ICRAA gives you specific rights, as outlined below. You may have additional rights under federal law. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington DC 20006.

We ("Owner") may obtain information about you for renting a dwelling unit from a third-party consumer reporting agency (Investigative Consumer Reporting Agency). You may be the subject of a "consumer report" and/or an "investigative consumer report" which may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and/or mode of living, and can involve personal interviews with sources such as your neighbors, friends, supervisors, or associates. These reports may contain information regarding your credit history, criminal history, social security verification, motor vehicle records ("driving records"), verification of your education or employment history, or other background checks. Further, you understand that information may be requested from various Federal, State, County and other agencies that maintain records concerning your past activities relating to your driving, criminal, civil, education, credit, and other experiences. Your credit history will be requested as the information substantially relates to the ability to rent the dwelling unit.

You have the right, upon written request made within a reasonable time period after receipt of this notice, to request whether a consumer report has been conducted about you, disclosure of the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report, and to request a copy of your report.

Please be advised that the nature and scope of the most common form of investigative consumer report obtained with regard to applicants for renting is an investigation into your rental and credit history. The scope of this notice and authorization is all-encompassing, however, allowing us to obtain consumer reports and investigative consumer reports now and throughout your tenancy to the extent permitted by law.

You should carefully consider whether to exercise your right to request disclosure of the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report.

California Civil Code §1786.22.

- (a) An investigative consumer reporting agency shall supply files and information required under Section 1786.10 during normal business hours and on reasonable notice.
- (b) Files maintained on you shall be made available for your visual inspection, as follows:
  - (1) In person, if you appear in person and furnish proper identification. A copy of his file shall also be available to the consumer for a fee not to exceed the actual costs of copying.
  - (2) By certified mail, if you make a written request, with proper identification, for copies to be sent to a specified address. Investigative consumer reporting agencies complying with requests for certified mailings under this section shall not be liable for disclosures to third parties caused by mishandling of mail after such mailings leave the investigative consumer reporting agencies.
  - (3) A summary of all information contained in files on you and required to be provided by Section 1786.10 shall be provided by telephone, if you have made a written request, with proper identification for telephone disclosure, and the toll charge, if any, for the telephone call is prepaid by or charged directly to you.
- (c) The term "proper identification" as used in subdivision (b) shall mean that information generally deemed sufficient to identify a person. Such information includes documents such as a valid driver's license, social security number, military identification card, and credit cards. Only if the consumer is unable to reasonably identify himself with the information described above, may an investigative consumer reporting agency require additional information concerning the consumer's employment and personal or family history in order to verify his identity.
- (d) The investigative consumer reporting agency shall provide trained personnel to explain to the consumer any information furnished him pursuant to Section 1786.10.
- (e) The investigative consumer reporting agency shall provide a written explanation of any coded information contained in files maintained on a consumer. This written explanation shall be distributed whenever a file is provided to a consumer for visual inspection as required under Section 1786.22.
- (f) The consumer shall be permitted to be accompanied by one other person of his choosing, who shall furnish reasonable identification. An investigative consumer reporting agency may require the consumer to furnish a written statement granting permission to the consumer reporting agency to discuss the consumer's file in such person's presence.

If you checked the box above, you will receive a copy of your investigative consumer report within three business days of receipt of your request.

I agree that the Owner, and its agents and/or employees, may rely upon this form to order background reports, including investigative consumer reports from companies other than Owner without asking me for my authorization again as allowed by law. Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies through the Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies Act (ICRAA) have assumed a vital role in collecting, assembling, evaluating, compiling, reporting, transmitting, transferring, or communicating information on consumers for employment, and insurance purposes, and for the purposes relating to the hiring of dwelling units, subpoenas, court orders, licensure and other lawful purposes. The California legislature finds there is a need that Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies exercise their grave responsibilities with fairness, impartiality, and a respect for consumer's rights to privacy. The crime of identity theft in this new computer era has exploded and has become the fastest growing white-collar crime in America. The unique nature of this crime means that it can often go undetected for years without the victim being aware that his or her identity has been misused. Because notice of identity theft is critical before the victim can take steps to stop and prosecute this crime, consumers are best protected if they are given copies of any investigative consumer reports made on them. The ICRAA requires that Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies adopt reasonable procedures for meeting the needs of commerce for information related to the renting of dwellings in a matter which is fair and equitable to the consumer, with regard to the confidentiality, accuracy, relevancy, and proper utilization of the information in accordance with the requirements of the ICRAA.

The ICRAA gives you specific rights, as outlined below. You may have additional rights under federal law. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington DC 20006.

We ("Owner") may obtain information about you for renting an apartment from a third-party consumer reporting agency (Investigative Consumer Reporting Agency). You may be the subject of a "consumer report" and/or an "investigative consumer report" which may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and/or mode of living, and can involve personal interviews with sources such as your neighbors, friends, supervisors, or associates. These reports may contain information regarding your credit history, criminal history, social security verification, motor vehicle records ("driving records"), verification of your education or employment history, or other background checks. Further, you understand that information may be requested from various Federal, State, County and other agencies that maintain records concerning your past activities relating to your driving, criminal, civil, education, credit, and other experiences. Your credit history will be requested as the information substantially relates to the ability to rent the apartment.

You have the right, upon written request made within a reasonable time period after receipt of this notice, to request whether a consumer report has been conducted about you, disclosure of the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report, and to request a copy of your report.

Please be advised that the nature and scope of the most common form of investigative consumer report obtained with regard to applicants for renting is an investigation into your rental and credit history. The scope of this notice and authorization is all-encompassing, however, allowing us to obtain consumer reports and investigative consumer reports now and throughout your tenancy to the extent permitted by law.

You should carefully consider whether to exercise your right to request disclosure of the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report.
